Proclamation

WHEREAS, residents of assisted living communities are active members of the larger community, offering their knowledge, life experiences and involvement; their past contributions continue to be a vital part of the City of Gillette's rich history; and their ongoing participation deepens our City's identity;

WHEREAS, assisted living is a critical long term care option for older adults and individuals with disabilities that fosters choice, dignity, and independence; assisted living communities are committed to excellence, innovation and the advancement of person-centered care;

WHEREAS, this year's theme of National Assisted Living Week is "A Spark of Creativity," which hopes to inspire assisted living residents to explore their creative side whether through the arts or beyond;

WHEREAS, according to the American Art Therapy Association, art therapy can offer many benefits to older adults and individuals with disabilities, including improving cognitive and sensory-motor functions, fostering self-esteem and self-awareness, cultivating emotional resilience, enhancing social skills, and reducing and resolving conflicts and distress;

WHEREAS, "A Spark of Creativity" is also meant to encourage assisted living staff to think creatively and continue to explore new, innovative ways to deliver high-quality, person-centered care;

WHEREAS, during this special week, assisted living communities across the country are encouraged to organize activities and events which celebrate the individuality of residents, the dedication of staff, and the deep connections formed in these settings;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Louise Carter-King, Mayor of the City of Gillette, Campbell County, Wyoming do hereby proclaim the week of September 8-14, 2019 as

Assisted Living Week

I urge all citizens to volunteer in an assisted living community, to visit friends and loved ones who reside at these communities, and to learn more about how assisted living services benefit Wyoming.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and cause the Seal of the City of Gillette, Wyoming to be affixed this 10th day of September 2019.
